PROGRESS OF LIGHT.

The following editorial article from the Richmond Whig will be a grateful treat and highly refreshing to the friends of American industry in all parts of the country. It is a plain and forcible article and shows the progress of light on the important subject of Protection, at the South. There never was a time, perhaps, when more able articles appeared on this subject than for the last few months. We often wish that the limits of our paper would admit of inserting the whole of them: But to the Whig:

THE TARIFF. NEW VIEWS.

Considering that we always render our readers good service by inserting an able document upon any topic of public interest—whatever may be the particular views advanced we have copied to-day a paper of that character upon the subject of the Tariff. Many of the views and suggestions will be new to the Virginia reader, for it has been the wont here to regard any word in favor of the Tariff as damnable heresy. The odious term Tariff is No. 2 in Rich's famous category of State warcries, which he has been mumbling with toothless gums, for thirty years. Bank Tariff, Internal Improvement, or Internal Improvement, Tariff, Bank take it which way you will, it comes second in the list of abominations. The incessant clamor, lunging with ceaseless din throughout all the borders of the Commonwealth, has had the effect to forestall the public judgment, and prevent all cold consideration of the subject. It may be, and we think it probable, that it is so, that a majority of the people of Virginia, operated upon unconsciously, by this clamor, or by some other cause, may disbelieve in the WHIGS Journal view of the paper which we publish. But dissent or not, the document is of a character which all thinking men will read with pleasure and profit.

For its tendency is to suggest new trains of thought, and to enlarge and liberalize the mind. Long and deeply steeped ourselves in the popular prejudice against the Tariff, our minds have not been entirely sealed to the revelations of experience. We reflect not, however, to have wholly overcome that prejudice. But we have seen enough to occasion doubt, where before we thought there was absolute certainty. The bold and confident predictions promulgated respecting the operation of the Tariff, by distinguished statesmen, have been, as completely falsified by results, that the most uncompromising opponent of the Tariff might well doubt the soundness of his conclusions. The whole North, with Mr. Webster in the lead, resisted the first Tariff, predicting that it would work the total prostration of Northern commerce. The event disappointed their forebodings, and they have become, from bitter assailants, the advocates of the system. John Randolph, although supposed to be gifted with more than ordinary foresight, in opposing the Tariff of '16, prophesied it would annihilate the revenue of the Government, and render a report to direct taxation necessary to supply the daily wants. There is not a more remarkable instance of the fallacy of human judgment upon record: So far from the results predicted being realized, just the opposite effect ensued. The Treasury began to fill space; the National Debt was speedily liquidated, and an immense surplus, notwithstanding an unprecedented prodigality in the Administration, was accumulated. Again it was confidently asserted that the high Tariff of '28 would arrest the production of Cotton in this country, and prohibit, altogether, the introduction of certain articles. But instead of this, Cotton never bore so high an average price as for several years succeeding that act, and the articles expected to be excluded entirely, actually fell in price, whilst others, on which the duty had been reduced, have advanced. These and such like facts, have caused us to doubt the justness of foreign conclusions, and we would not now, as we have done before assert without qualification, that under the existing commercial regulations of the world, a high Tariff would not be beneficial to this country. But the fact is, there is no subject on which human reason is so liable to err, as that respecting the effects to be produced by the increase or diminution of duties. Here political economists are at fault, and with all their boasted science they are unable to devise any rules for the production of any fixed, certain and infallible result. The difficulty springs from the complexity and comprehensive character of the subject. The world today, with the lights before us, may be deemed destined to lead to beneficial results, may be tomorrow productive of just the reverse. In consequence of some recent invention, or a new regulation, by which the production of the particular article in question, may be increased or diminished.

All that we design by these remarks is to persuade the country, and our legislators particularly, to approach the consideration of this great question, divested of passion and prejudice, and in a spirit of enlarged statesmanship and enlightened patriotism.

In Character. The New York Sun, a well known lender towards locofocism on occasion of its interest being affected, uncovers the management of the locofocism by which that great city is governed. It says the city "can afford, or at least she does afford, to squander yearly, her thousands and tens of thousands in gratuities upon political favorites, and for extravagances and gewgaws which would discredit any individual of common business prudence." It effected a premium purse of five hundred dollars a year for the party organs, and by that means relieved the party itself of as much dead-weight upon its general treasury, while, at the same time, the $500 require of those organs not a whit more service, than they, and other daily papers of the city, for years untold, have heretofore been rendering for the pitiful fifty dollars a year.

The locofocism of New York city bears a striking likeness to that of the United States when in power, as also that in this State. The leaders of that party labor for party instead of their constituency. Thus it ever has been and ever will be. It is its nature.

ANOTHER GREAT BANK ROBBERY.—We learn from the St. Louis New Era Extra, that the Branch of the State Bank of Illinois at Jacksonville, was robbed on the night of the 11th inst. The doors were entered by false keys. The following is the probable amount taken by the robbers: $78,000 of paper; about $47,000 of which was in Parent Bank paper, the balance mostly in notes of the Branches, and Bank of Illinois, about $8,000 in gold, and 3 or $4,000 in silver. A reward of $5,000 has been offered for the recovery of the money and the detection of the robber. The Books, papers and evidences of debt, were cut up, mutilated, and destroyed by the robbers, for there must have been several persons engaged in it; and that part of the Banking house was occupied as a residence by the Teller.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—We have now gone to work in earnest, and have made rapid progress in the public business. Already it has passed 1st, an appropriation Bill; 2d, a Bill for the relief of Mrs. Harrison; 3d, a Bill for the relief of the Junta of the District; 4th, the Land Distribution Bill; 5th, the Navy Pension Bill; 6th, the Naval Ordnance Bill; 7th, the Loan Bill; 8th, the Fortification Bill and 9th, the Home Squadron Bill.

Robert Elliot, Jr. a native of Maine, cook on board the schooner Otis, from Boston, was drowned in the Delaware last week.

It is computed that there are about 20,000 negroes in Canada, who have escaped from slavery in the Southern States.

It is a member of the Connecticut Legislature climbed up to the State House steeple. When asked what he was doing there, he said, "It is so hot down below; I have got up here to see the bellfry!"

The President and part of the Cabinet visited the Theatre on Thursday evening last.

Death from a Worm in the Ear.—A man died on one of the flatboats on the N. Orleans River, on the 6th instant, of a disease which baffled his physician. A post mortem examination took place, and upon examination of his brain it was discovered that an insect about an inch long, known by the name of a Centipede, or hundred leg, had crawled into his ear, causing thereby an excruciating death.

MORTALITY OF LONDON.—The number of deaths in the metropolis for the week ending 26th of June, as made up by the Register General, is 700, of which number, 380 are males, and 375 females. The weekly average number of deaths for the years 1838, '39 and '40, was 926, so that the present number gives a diminution of 171, and shows the standard of health in London, and the suburban districts together constituting the "metropolis," to be upwards of 20 per cent. higher than shown by the weekly average of the three years above mentioned.

THE TOTALIS.—There are in London and suburbs fifty total absence societies, and about 20,000 members; in Scotland, 150,000 members; and in Ireland (in consequence principally of the exertions of Father Mathew,) 5,000,000 members!

The "upper crust" of loco fociism is wondrously fond of endeavoring to make its adherents believe that the party to which they belong is exclusively the democratic party, who the Whigs are "Aristocrats." Now every body knows, the varlets not but like him the father of all mischief, in such assertions, but they know them lie. Every now and then they break accidentally through their hypocrisy and avow it. We recollect when the now Boston Postmaster was appointed, that Mr. Isaac Hill's paper, the Patriot, sneered at the appointment because Mr. Gordon had risen to respectability on his own merits, and boasted him, with his humble parentage. He, said the Patriot, was the son of a man in the "lower ranks of life" in New Hampshire. The Rochester Advertiser, another loco foci paper, exhibits the same democratic feeling. "We have," says a correspondent of that paper, "at last got a peg driving Postmaster in our village." This is said of a respectable man who has lately been appointed Postmaster at Middleport, and because he happens to be a shoemaker. As though a shoemaker was not as good and quite as likely to be honest and capable, as any body else. [Courier and Enquirer.]

ARMS FOR FRENCHES.—It is said that in the small town of Bedellish, in the county of Worcester, Eng., there are up to date 20,000,000 of needles manufactured every week.

Major G. TOCHMAN, late an officer in the U. S. Army, has come to our city and propounding a series of lectures on the History of Poland, and the Polish History of the French Revolution. He has lectured before highly intelligent audiences in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, and several other States, much to their satisfaction and gratification, and by his eloquence, sincerity and fervor, has enlisted the sympathies of those who listened to him, for fallen and oppressed Poland.

Major Tochman delivered a course of lectures in Columbus, Ohio, in January last, and at the close of the course, the following approbatory resolutions were adopted. We copy them from the Ohio State Journal, of January 23th:

At a meeting of members of the Legislature, citizens of Columbus, and others, held in the Hall of the House of Representatives, of the State of Ohio, on the evening of Jan. 23d, 1841, for the purpose of hearing from Major Tochman, on the history of Poland, the last of a series of Lectures, by him delivered, upon the History of Poland. On motion of Mr. Vincent, a member of the House, the Hon. Seabury Ford, Speaker of the House of Representatives, was called to the chair, and on motion of Gen. Bell, a member of the House, John W. Andrews was appointed Secretary.

At the close of the Lecture, on motion of Mr. Van Vorhees, a member of the House, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, This meeting has heard with much pleasure, the several lectures relative to the history of Poland, delivered by Major Tochman, and are fully satisfied with the very able defense made by him against the many slanderous charges preferred against her gallant, but oppressed people, for the purpose of giving an expression of our feelings thus publicly in their behalf; and also as an act of justice to that individual.

Resolved, That we tender to Major Tochman our thanks for his able and interesting Lectures, with the assurance of our solicitude for his individual prosperity, and for the final triumph of Poland over all her enemies.

Resolved, That in thus manifesting our feelings of indignation and strong sympathy for the wrongs that have been suffered by Poland, we but echo the feelings entertained by the whole of the American people; and that the prayers of every patriot are ascending to heaven, for the speedy emancipation of her sons, the countrymen of Pulaski and Kosciusko.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions, attested by the officers of the meeting, be presented to Major Tochman.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and published in the newspapers of the City.

SEABURY-FORD, Chairman.

John W. Andrews, Secretary.

THE BANKRUPT.—Our readers will have learned from our last that the Judiciary Committee of the House on Wednesday reported a bill to establish a Uniform System of Bankruptcy throughout the Union, accompanied by a resolution of the majority that it was inexpedient to act on this bill at the present Session of Congress. This resolution was immediately and significantly laid on the table by the following vote:

A NEW AND IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

DR. PHELPS' COMPOUND TOMATO PILLS.

[ENTIRELY VEGETABLE.]

A New and invaluable Medicine for all Diseases

arising from Impurities of the Blood, Morbid

Secretions of the Liver and Stomach; also a Substitute for Calomel;

as a Cathartick in Fevers and all

Bilious Affections.

THESE popular Pills being a combination of a newly discovered Alkaline substance, extracted from the TOMATO PLANT, with other vegetative substances which have been found to modify

and close its effects, are believed to be the best

Alternative and Cathartic Medicine ever discovered.

They have been abundantly and successfully tried,

and have received universal approbation for their curative properties.

They are an antidote to Contagious and Epidemic diseases; prevent the formation of Bilious, and Liver affections; Fever and Ague, &c., in those who reside in hot climates, and low and marshy countries, and are the best Cathartic that can be used for those fortunates.

Seame will find them an invaluable remedy for the Scurvy, and Traveller's Disease.

The best medicine they can use to counteract the dangers of exposure in unhealthy climates.

For ordinary family Physician, they are universally approved, as the best ever offered.

These Pills have a powerful and salutary operation

upon the Glandular System, removing all obstructions from the Glands, wherever situated, Scirrus and Scrofula, Tumors in all their forms; and allso powerfully, in ease of Scrofula, however severe, can resist its influence.

It is in their operation

upon the Glandular System, that their effects are so peculiar and potent, and so nearly resemble that of Calomel. In fact, the Tomato has all the Alternative Denburton and Cathartus properties of Calomel, without ever producing unpleasant or injurious effects under any circumstances, either from exposure to cold or wet; on the contrary, the Common Tomato Pill are the best remedy ever known to counteract the effects of Mercury, completely eradicating every particle of it from the system, and renovating the constitution broken down by its use;

which it does, by correcting the state of the blood,

and through that, correcting the morbid secretions

of the glands, and restoring them to a healthy and their own proper action. Its effects are analogous to Sarsaparilla and Blood Root, and in its combined action in the ingredients composing the Pill, it exerts

a unique and singular action peculiar to itself.

The peculiar virtues of the Tomato Plant, have for a long time attracted the attention of the Medical profession and the Public, and a lively interest has recently been directed to the future development of its active powers, and its Antidotes and Alterative qualities; which the Proprietor is now happy in being able to gratify, and presents his

Pills to the public, with the full confidence of their merit and value.
